Student Agreement Requirements

Agincourt International Academy (AIA) ultimately desires to provide excellent and thorough educational opportunities for its international community. In order to facilitate this, international students, regardless of age, must understand and agree to all of the following conditions:

1. The student must obey the laws of Canada and the province of Ontario.
2. The student must obey all of the rules and regulations of Agincourt International Academy
3. The student must attend all classes.
4. If absent, the student must provide documentation that proves why they could not attend class. This can be a written note from the custodian or a doctor's note in case of illness.
5. The student must maintain 100% course load. This means there can be no "gaps" or "empty times" in the students' timetable, unless approved by the principal.
6. The student gives AIA permission to share personal information regarding emotional/mental/physical/academic well-being to AIA staff, parents, custodians and Ontario Ministry of Education officials in order to provide the most effective guidance for the student to ensure his/her success.
7. The student gives AIA permission to provide academic counsel regarding student post-secondary placement and to make related educational decisions.
8. The student and guardian understand that any false information, inaccuracies, or failure to complete necessary components of the application process may result in immediate dismissal from AIA without refund of the application fee.
9. The student agrees to abide by AIA's Code of Conduct as listed in the Student Handbook.
10. The student and guardians understand that should the student violate AIA's Code of Conduct, he or she may be de-enrolled from AIA without refund of any fees, including tuition.

General Release and Waiver

In order for AIA to provide its services without worry or fear of legal reprimand by international parties, it is important to review the below release and waiver terms and conditions:

1. We, the undersigned, do release Agincourt International Academy (AIA) of any liability for any losses incurred by the applicant that result from the applicant's participation in AIA's international student program.
2. AIA is not responsible for the applicant's financial obligations, personal actions, or damages caused during the applicant's participation in AIA's international student program.

3. We understand that AIA is not responsible for any loss or injury suffered by the applicant during periods of study or travel. If the applicant becomes ill or incapacitated, AIA may such actions as it deems necessary for the applicant, including securing medical treatment or sending the applicant home at the applicant's expense. We release AIA from all liability related to such matters. We understand that the applicant's participation in AIA's international student program may be terminated at the discretion of the Principal of AIA. We understand that the applicant may be dismissed and sent home should the applicant fail to adhere to AIA's rules and regulations.
4. We ensure that the applicant has no history of criminal behaviour. We agree that all legal disputes relating to the applicant during his or her stay in Ontario will be dealt with by the courts of Ontario.
5. We understand that AIA cannot guarantee admission to AIA, regardless of the applicant's suitability; admission depends on available space AND academic prowess.
6. We do not hold AIA responsible for any losses the applicant may incur that are beyond AIA's control.
7. We understand all of the information throughout the entirety of this application package.
